

Lichfield Society of Artists 80th Anniversary

The Society was originally called :The Lichfield and District Society of Arts : and was founded in 1944 with music, painting and drama being an inclusive part of the Society ,Alfred Pochin had the inspiration and the determination for the founding of the Society and the Society still has connections with the Pochin family 80 years on to this day.

The Society continues to support artists of all abilities in the practice and appreciation of the visual arts with regular meetings and exhibitions based in the Lichfield area.

Drawing & painting in all mediums ,3D artwork in different materials ,textile and stitch , digital artwork and mixed media are to name but a few of the disciplines enjoyed and explored by members who then have the opportunity to attend Society meetings and meet with fellow artists in and around Lichfield and further afield.
